

Press- For Immediate Release

ClassLink

HUDSON FALLS CENTRAL SCHOOL DISTRICT SENIOR AWARDED CLASSLINK SCHOLARSHIP

Weehawken, NJ- July 5, 2005

Leading educational technology firm, ClassLink, Inc. selected Sean P. Connolly of Hudson Falls High School as a recipient of this year's Classlink Student Scholarship. The ClassLink scholarship program is open to high school seniors at participating ClassLink schools who are interested in furthering their education at a two or four-year college. Mr. Connolly was selected from a large pool of extremely qualified candidates. Only two such scholarships are given out each year. Sean's impressive academic record, countless extra-curricular

"Our scholarship program endeavors to recognize those students who embody all that is right in education today."

Contact: Kate Matthews Kelly

Vice President, Education

Phone: 201-271-1010 x202

E-mail: kkelly@classlink2000.com activities, outstanding recommendations, and persuasive essay made him the ideal candidate for the award. Kate Matthews Kelly, V.P. Education at ClassLink, remarked, "As an organization, ClassLink is dedicated to partnering with our schools to provide quality technology tools for learning. Our scholarship program endeavors to recognize those students who embody all that is right in education today. Sean's passion for learning and aptitude for technology are a winsome combination. We are pleased to support him in what promises to be an impressive collegiate career."

pictured left to right: CJ Hebert, High School Principal;

Greg Partch, Director of Education Technology, Kate

Kelly, V.P. Education ClassLink; Sean Connolly,

Scholarship Recipient,

Mark Doody, Superintendent of Schools

As part of the scholarship application, students are asked to respond to a timely essay topic. This year's topic posed the question of the role of ethics in modern society. Students were asked, "What is the correct balance between ambition and ethics? What role should ethics play in the professional arena?" Scholarship selection was based upon written essay, school record including activities, and recommendations.

T o o l s F o r L e a r n i n g

Simple • Reliable • Affordable • Portable

The $1,000 gift may be applied to tuition, fees, books, room & board, or any other educational expense.

About ClassLink

ClassLink, Inc. is the leading instructional platform provider for K-12 classrooms. ClassLink's award winning learning platform, ClassLink System 2000™, empowers schools with the critical tools that offer individualized learning environments from any computer in the classroom or at home. ClassLink software facilitates real time communication and collaboration between teachers and students. For administrators and technologists, ClassLink's software streamlines day-to-day operations and provides in-depth analysis on the correlation between application usage and learning outcomes. The ClassLink System 2000™ is a suite of software products, including: ClassLink LaunchPad™, an electronic gateway for students and teachers; ClassLink Portfolio System™, an electronic collection of student work tied to rubrics and standards; and ClassLink Information Console™ (CLiC™), designed for school technologists to manage their instructional technology infrastructure. To learn more about ClassLink, visit www.classlink2000.com or call 888-963-7550.